

NEW RELEASE

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Aazer Siddiqui as Chief Strategy & Corporate Development Officer, reporting to Dr. Arshad Siddiqui, President & CEO.

“I am pleased that Aazer has joined Paraza. His unique perspective and strategic insight will enhance our growth potential,” commented Dr. Siddiqui.

Aazer holds a bachelor’s degree in philosophy from the University of Chicago and has broad experience working with diverse companies, most recently as a law associate at Leydig, Voit and Mayer, a leading IP law firm.

Aazer will be part of the Executive Management Team of Paraza and will be involved in the management of the overall strategic planning process of the company. He will also help develop strategies to incorporate emerging technologies within the Paraza portfolio. Aazer will be based at Paraza headquarters at 2525 Marie-Curie, Montreal, QC, Canada.

“I’m very excited to have the opportunity to work with and learn from everyone here at Paraza, and to contribute to the company’s continued success going forward,” said Aazer Siddiqui.
